The DeAnn Singh Talk:

Hollywood's Favorite Calligrapher

<https://www.friendsofcalligraphy.org/pages/calendar.html>

The lecture is limited to 500 participants.

One log-on device per participant.

DeAnn has been making props for movies since the 1980s. She'll tell you stories of how she made the documents and researched them, and how to make parts of a page burn while other parts don't so you can get the close-up shot. Working at Universal Studios and watching them shoot the movies, take after take, while they burn the beautiful calligraphy that you've written. It's so much fun watching the actors go over their lines and compliment the work you're doing. She has great stories and pictures to take you behind the scenes of calligraphy and moviemaking.

DeAnn Singh has loved teaching calligraphy in many venues since 1981. She has been a calligrapher and contractor for the County of Los Angeles, and owns and operates Designing Letters, a calligraphy studio. She is past president of Society for Calligraphy in Southern California, and has served for many years in various capacities, currently as archivist. DeAnn is the originator of Letters California Style, a four-day mini conference. She co-authored Hand Lettering: Simple, Creative Styles for Cards, Scrapbooks & More, and was technical editor for Simple Stroke Calligraphy by Marci Donley. DeAnn's work can be seen in movies and television including National Treasure, Book of Secrets, and Charmed.
