“Nature’s Calling”—Exercises in Eco Printing

Saturday & Sunday | April 22ND & 23RD, 2017 9:30 AM to 4:30 PM | Cost: $160.00 | Material Fee: $20.00
Albany Senior Center | 846 Masonic Avenue | Albany, CA | FOC Members Only

The nature we see every day can provide a myriad of possibilities in enhancing paper and fabric. In this course we will learn about mordants and modifiers in creating botanical prints. What happens when we combine beautiful flowers, leaves and other natural materials with water and metals, or onions? We will spend the first day making our prints, marveling at the surprises we find. On the second day we will create books, cards, boxes and art with the wonderful prints we made the day before. This workshop is open to all levels of experience.

Dorothy Yuki, an accomplished artist, calligrapher and teacher, had not actually planned to become an artist. She began as a fashion designer but soon after college became a partner in the manufacturing company, In Good Company, where she designed and manufactured kitchen soft goods and linens. Dorothy currently lives in San Francisco where she teaches and volunteers in many organizations, such as Ruth's Table, Artseed, SCRAP-SE, San Francisco Center for the Book, and FabMo. She was past President and council member of the Friends of Calligraphy. Dorothy still has the time to do ‘art’ and is a recipient of Honorable Mentions for her artwork at the Marin Museum of Contemporary Art Altered Book Show 2014 and 2015.
